Online Mass will be streamed live on the parish website every Sunday @ 11am during lockdown from Duleek Church.

<https://duleekbellewstownparish.com/online-mass/>

As the demand for online mass is increasing every week, we ask for your patience when tuning in.

As well as using your smartphone or tablet, you can also view mass directly from a smart TV for a great viewing experience. Just cast the live stream from your phone or tablet to your TV.

Remember you can also subscribe to the "Duleek Bellewstown Parish" YouTube channel to get notified when the live streaming starts, just click the bell icon to get notified"

Please remember in your prayers the repose of the soul of Michael Proudfoot, St Marys Villas, Donore (formerly Slane); Paul Kelly, late of Kellys Bar, Duleek and Ashbourne.

First Confessions

Due to current restrictions First Confessions scheduled for February will now have to be postponed. I will rearrange another time when restrictions are eased and we are able to assemble again. In the meantime I would encourage you as a family to join us at the Webcam Mass every Sunday @ 11am in preparation for your child's First Holy Communion. Fr John

It has been brought to my attention that graves at Crossmacole Cemetery are being interfered with. Flower tributes and wreaths have in some cases been removed. If you know the identity of the person or persons involved in this activity please bring it to my attention or contact the Gardai directly.

Death can be a difficult time for any family but these actions only serve to increase the hurt and the pain. Fr John

Duleek Community Shop

Due to present restrictions the shop is closed. At the moment we cannot except donations and ask people NOT to leave black bags outside the shop.

Zumba with Marta are now available via zoom, details can be found on facebook, look up Zumba with Marta.
