Dear Parishioners,
I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their kindness, generosity, support and encouragement during my 14 years in Duleek and Bellewstown parish. As I look back, I will remember fondly the many aspects of life in the parish. On the occasions of celebration or on the occasions of sadness, I always felt welcomed and valued by the people of this community. As I look forward now, I realise that my time in Duleek has prepared me well for the next chapter in my life as parish priest of St Marys in Drogheda. By your kindness and support you have enabled me to take this next step. Can I express my deepest thanks for your very kind and generous gifts which I have received and will treasure fondly.

With every blessing Fr John
