OCTOBER – MONTH OF THE MISSION. “YOU SHALL BE MY WITNESSES” ACTS.1:8

This was the Gospel mandate given to those who followed Jesus and witnessed His resurrection. His Mother Mary remained with the disciples and encouraged them by her grace filled presence as they too filled with the grace of the Holy Spirit following Pentecost went out to evangelise all nations! In our own time and place we too continue the Mission and we seek Our Heavenly Mother to inspire and guide us the living community of believers all around the world. Let us think and pray especially for those who have left their home nations to share and live the Gospel in different lands and cultures. Perhaps research those whom your family may have known as relatives or locals from the parish who years ago went on the Missions. Google the various mission societies for example The Columban Fathers & Sisters (The Maynooth Mission to China), The Kiltegan Fathers (St. Patrick’s Mission Society) or The Holy Ghost Fathers (The Spiritans), and see the extraordinary contribution they have made in solidarity with the poorest of the poor in so many countries across the world. “Without love, deeds, even the most brilliant, count as nothing.” St. Therese, Patron Saint of the Missions.

On this day we think of struggling parishes in the growing church throughout Africa, South America, Asia and Oceania. The collection taken up on World Mission Sunday is a crucial lifeline in over 1100 relatively new dioceses and provides assistance to communities for them to build schools, health centres, halls and churches. It also supports in the education of future leaders in faith. Your support is greatly needed and appreciated. To find out more check out www.missio.ie

“A deeper look at the words, “You shall be my witnesses”, can clarify a few ever timely aspects of the mission Christ entrusted to the disciples. The plural form of the verb emphasizes the communitarian and ecclesial nature of the disciples’ missionary vocation. Each baptized person is called to mission, in the Church and by the mandate of the Church: consequently, mission is carried out together, not individually, in communion with the ecclesial community, and not on one’s own initiative. Even in cases where an individual in some very particular situation carries out the evangelizing mission alone, he must always do so in communion with the Church which commissioned him. As Saint Paul VI taught in the Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Nuntiandi, a document dear to my heart: “Evangelization is for no one an individual and isolated act; it is one that is deeply ecclesial. When the most obscure preacher, catechist or pastor in the most distant land preaches the Gospel, gathers his little community together or administers a sacrament, even alone, he is carrying out an ecclesial act, and his action is certainly attached to the evangelizing activity of the whole Church by institutional relationships, but also by profound invisible links in the order of grace. This presupposes that he acts not in virtue of a mission which he attributes to himself or by a personal inspiration, but in union with the mission of the Church and in her name” (No. 60). Indeed, it was no coincidence that the Lord Jesus sent his disciples out on mission in pairs; the witness of Christians to Christ is primarily communitarian in nature. Hence, in carrying out the mission, the presence of a community, regardless of its size, is of fundamental importance.” Message of Pope Francis for World Mission Day 2022

PARISH LIST OF THE DEAD As we approach November, we compile our own individual list of our beloved dead and add them to the Parish List of the Dead 2022. The Parish List of the Dead envelopes are now ready for distribution and we are most grateful to the many volunteers who assist with the distribution throughout the parish. Could all who help as distributors call to the Parish Office from Tuesday to Thursday this week.

On Wednesday 9th November at 7:30pm in St. Cianán’s Church a special Mass of Memory will be offered, at which we will think especially of the parishioners whom we have buried since this time last year. We invite their families to join us for this Memorial, as we recognise their grief and support them with our prayers. We also invite other parishioners who may have lost loved ones and celebrated their funerals elsewhere. Please come and join with us as we pray for the gentle repose of their souls in the eternal love and mercy of God.

AN EARLY PARTY INVITE! Commemorating the Feast of All Saints on 1st November we invite the children of our parish and their families to a special 7:30pm Mass in St. Cianán’s Duleek dressed as a favourite saint. There are lots to choose from, including some new ones last weekend! Afterwards there will be party food and some prizes will be given to the best-dressed ‘boy saint’ & ‘girl saint’! Relics of some saints will be on display as we celebrate this most sacred Day and the Feast of All Souls 2nd November. If any volunteers could help out please contact Caroline at the Parish Office.
